

I would like to see Indiana's Do-Not-Call List remain just as it is. I enjoy not receiving annoying calls from telemarketers. I used to receive at least a call a day - someone trying to sell me something, or change my long distance. Now, I may get one call a month. It is great. Please leave Indiana's law alone.